

We Need Your Support!

HOTGIRLS is a small, youth-driven organization that relies on the kindness of volunteers and people like you to help us reach our goals and accomplish our mission. Over the years, we have struggled to support our work in an increasingly competitive funding environment with limited resources and, in 2009, we experienced a significant loss of funding due to nonprofit foundation budget cuts and the economic downturn. Unfortunately, it is not possible to provide quality programs for young women and girls without the continued support of our individual donors, foundations, and corporations.

Please make a generous gift today to support our important work. Your donation will make a tremendous difference in the lives of youth served by HOTGIRLS.
